CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, Channel Aweau, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, brings this class action under Pa. R.C.P. §§ 1701-1717 against Defendant, Comcast Corporation (“Defendant” or “Comcast”), and alleges the following:

INTRODUCTION

1. Since at least as early as October 24, 2020, Comcast has repeatedly called Ms. Aweau’s cellular telephone about a Comcast account that does not belong to her.
2. Comcast used an artificial or prerecorded voice to make these calls in violation of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. § 227, et seq. (“TCPA”).
3. Ms. Aweau is not, and has never been, a Comcast customer and did not provide her express consent (or any consent whatsoever), to receive calls from Comcast regarding an account that she does not own.
4. On numerous occasions, Ms. Aweau informed Comcast that it was calling the wrong number and asked Comcast to stop calling her.
5. Comcast stated that it marked her number as “do-not-call” and promised Ms. Aweau that the calls would stop.
6. Comcast, nevertheless, continues to make calls to Ms. Aweau’s cellular telephone without her consent.

7. Accordingly, Ms. Aweau brings this TCPA action on behalf of herself and a class of similarly situated individuals under 47 U.S.C. §§ 227(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

8. This Court has jurisdiction over Plaintiff's federal claims pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3), which provides that "[a] person . . . may, if otherwise permitted by the laws or rules of court of a State, bring in an appropriate court of that State . . . an action based on a violation of this subsection" 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3).

9. Comcast is a Pennsylvania corporation who at all times material to this Complaint has been in good standing and authorized to transact business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

10. Comcast carries on a continuous and systematic part of its general business within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

11. Venue is appropriate under Pa. R.C.P. 1006 because Comcast is located in this county, and because the transactions or occurrences out of which this cause of action arose took place in this county.

PARTIES

12. Plaintiff Channel Aweau ("Ms. Aweau") is, and at all times mentioned herein was, a citizen and resident of Bossier City, Louisiana.

13. Ms. Aweau is, and at all times mentioned herein was, a "person" as defined by 47 U.S.C. § 153(39).

14. Defendant Comcast Corporation is, and at all times mentioned herein was, a Pennsylvania corporation with headquarters at One Comcast Center, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19103-2838.

15. Defendant is, and at all times mentioned herein was, a “person” as defined by 47 U.S.C. § 153 (39).

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

16. Ms. Aweau’s telephone number, (xxx) xxx-1111, is assigned to a cellular telephone service.

17. This number has been assigned to Ms. Aweau since December, 2016.

18. Since at least as early as October 24, 2020, Comcast has repeatedly called Ms. Aweau’s cellular telephone number and played a prerecorded message relating to a Comcast account that utilized an artificial or prerecorded voice.

19. Ms. Aweau knew that the call used an artificial or prerecorded voice due to the tone and cadence of the voice and because Ms. Aweau is familiar with traditional human discourse and was unable to interact with the caller.

20. Comcast is a publicly traded company with a market capitalization exceeding $261 billion dollars. With millions of customers, the scale of Comcast’s business requires the use of an automated system that allows the delivery of messages without the involvement of human agents.

21. These calls are made from the number 1-888-934-6489.¹

22. Ms. Aweau does not have a Comcast account.

23. Ms. Aweau has never been a Comcast customer.

24. Ms. Aweau did not consent to receive calls from Comcast and never consented to receive calls intended for other Comcast customers.

¹ Other consumers report receiving similar calls from Comcast. See https://lookup.robokiller.com/p/888-934-6489?_cf_chl_jschl_tk=_pmd_oq5KYETXhjEVg0An.VYo.8OMPfB0KIIdq8eTUPfazWM-1633552613-0-gqNtZGzNAICjcnBsZQv9 (last accessed October 6, 2021).

25. During numerous calls, Ms. Aweau followed the prompts to be connected to a live agent and informed the agent that Comcast was calling the wrong number and requested that the calls stop.

26. Despite her informing Comcast of the erroneous nature of its calls and requesting that the calls stop, Comcast continued to place prerecorded calls to Ms. Aweau.

27. On October 24, 2020 and June 24, 2021, Ms. Aweau spoke with a Comcast representative.

28. On both occasions, the Comcast representative advised that Ms. Aweau's number was being marked as "do-not-call", or words to that effect, and that she should not receive any further calls.

29. Despite these assurances, Ms. Aweau continues to receive calls from Comcast.

30. Ms. Aweau also called Comcast's customer service number and requested that the calls stop.

31. Nevertheless, Ms. Aweau continues to receive calls from Comcast.

32. The content of Comcast's messages demonstrates that Comcast's calls were not made of an emergency purpose.

33. Comcast is aware of the problems with its system resulting in these improper calls.

34. Comcast has been sued multiple times for behavior similar to that described in this complaint. See, e.g., Lacy v. Comcast Corporation, Case No. 19-05007 (W.D. Wash.); Elder v. Comcast Corporation, Case No. 15-3834 (E.D. Pa.).

35. Comcast is aware of the TCPA's prohibitions against the use of artificial or prerecorded voices to make calls to cellular phones without the prior express consent of the called party. Comcast therefore knowingly and willfully caused calls utilizing an artificial or prerecorded voice to be made to the cellular telephones of Ms. Aweau and other consumers without their prior express consent.

36. In addition, each call Comcast made to Ms. Aweau's cellular telephone after she informed Comcast that it was calling the wrong number was made knowingly and willfully.

37. Ms. Aweau has suffered concrete harm because of Defendant's unwanted and unsolicited telemarketing calls, including, but not limited to:

- Lost time tending to and responding to the unsolicited calls;
- Invasion of Privacy; and
- Nuisance.

38. Accordingly, each of Comcast's calls to Ms. Aweau using an artificial or prerecorded voice violated 47 U.S.C. § 227(b).

39. For violations of 47 U.S.C. § 227(b), Ms. Aweau is entitled to a minimum of $500 per call.

40. Ms. Aweau is entitled to $1500 per call if Comcast's actions are found to be knowing or willful.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

41. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of a class, pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. §§ 1701-1717.

42. Plaintiff seeks to represent the following Class:

All persons called by or on behalf of Comcast on their cellular telephone numbers with an artificial or prerecorded voice within four years of the filing of the complaint after informing Comcast or its vendor that the call was to a wrong number.

43. Plaintiff reserves the right to amend or modify the class definitions consistent with the record.

44. The Members of the Class for whose benefit this action is brought are so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable.

45. The exact number and identities of the persons who fit within the Class are ascertainable in that Comcast and third parties maintain written and/or electronically stored data showing:

- a. The time period(s) during which Comcast placed its calls;
- b. The telephone numbers to which Comcast placed its calls;
- c. The telephone numbers for which Comcast had prior express consent;
- d. The telephone numbers for which Comcast was informed were incorrect;
- e. The purposes of such calls; and
- f. The names and addresses of Class members.

46. The Class is comprised of hundreds, if not thousands, of individuals.

47. There are common questions of law and fact affecting the rights of the Members of the Class, including, inter alia, the following:

- a. Whether Comcast (or someone acting on its behalf) used an artificial or prerecorded voice in placing its calls;
- b. Whether Comcast (or someone acting on its behalf) obtains prior express consent;
- c. Whether Comcast ignored consumers' indications that they were not the consumers Comcast intended to call;
- d. Whether Ms. Aweau and the Class were damaged thereby, and the extent of damages for such violations; and
- e. Whether Comcast should be enjoined from engaging in such conduct in the future.

48. Ms. Aweau is a member of the Class in that Comcast placed a prerecorded call to her cellular telephone without her prior express consent and after Ms. Aweau notified Comcast that it was calling the wrong number.

49. Ms. Aweau's claims are typical of the claims of the Members of the Class in that they arise from Comcast's uniform conduct and are based on the same legal theories as these claims.

50. Ms. Aweau and all putative Members of the Class have also necessarily suffered concrete harm in addition to statutory damages, as all Members of the Class spent time tending to Defendant's unwanted calls and suffered a nuisance and an invasion of their privacy.

51. Ms. Aweau has no interests antagonistic to, or in conflict with, the Class.

52. Ms. Aweau will thoroughly and adequately protect the interests of the Class, having retained qualified and competent legal counsel to represent her and the Class.

53. Comcast has acted and refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class, thereby making injunctive and declaratory relief appropriate for the Class.

54. The prosecution of separate actions by individual class members would create a risk of inconsistent or varying adjudications.

55. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy since, inter alia, the damages suffered by each class member make individual actions uneconomical.

56. Common questions will predominate, and there will be no unusual manageability issues.

CAUSE OF ACTION
Violations of the TCPA, 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)

57. Plaintiff and the proposed Class incorporate the foregoing allegations as if fully set forth herein.

58. Comcast used an artificial or prerecorded voice to make non-emergency calls to the cellular telephones of Plaintiff and Class members, without their prior express consent.

59. Comcast has therefore violated 47 U.S.C. § 227(b).

60. As a result of Comcast's unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and the Class Members are entitled to an award of $500 in statutory damages for each call, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3)(B).

61. Plaintiff and the Class Members are entitled to an award of treble damages in an amount up to $1,500 for each call made knowingly and/or willfully, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3).

62. Plaintiff and Class Members are also entitled to and seek injunctive relief prohibiting future violations of the TCPA, including an injunction prohibiting Comcast from calling individuals with an artificial or prerecorded voice after being informed that Comcast or its vendor is calling the wrong number.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the Class, prays for the following relief:

A. An order certifying the Classes as defined above, appointing Plaintiff as the representative of the Class and appointing her counsel as Class Counsel;

B. An order declaring that Defendant's actions, as set out above, violate 47 U.S.C. § 227(b);

C. An award of injunctive and other equitable relief as necessary to protect the interests of the Class, including, inter alia, an order prohibiting Defendant from engaging in the wrongful and unlawful acts described herein;

D. An award of statutory damages;

E. An award of treble damages; and

F. Such other and further relief that the Court deems reasonable and just.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff requests a trial by jury of all claims that can be so tried.

CLASS ACTION – AMENDED COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, Channel Aweau, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, brings this class action under Pa. R.C.P. §§ 1701-1717 against Defendant, Comcast Cable Communications, LLC (“Defendant” or “Comcast”), and alleges the following:

INTRODUCTION

1. Since at least as early as October 24, 2020, Comcast has repeatedly called Ms. Aweau’s cellular telephone about a Comcast account that does not belong to her.
2. Comcast used an artificial or prerecorded voice to make these calls in violation of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. § 227, et seq. (“TCPA”).
3. Ms. Aweau is not, and has never been, a Comcast customer and did not provide her express consent (or any consent whatsoever), to receive calls from Comcast regarding an account that she does not own.
4. On numerous occasions, Ms. Aweau informed Comcast that it was calling the wrong number and asked Comcast to stop calling her.
5. Comcast stated that it marked her number as “do-not-call” and promised Ms. Aweau that the calls would stop.

6. Comcast, nevertheless, continues to make calls to Ms. Aweau’s cellular telephone without her consent.

7. Accordingly, Ms. Aweau brings this TCPA action on behalf of herself and a class of similarly situated individuals under 47 U.S.C. §§ 227(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

8. This Court has jurisdiction over Plaintiff’s federal claims pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3), which provides that “[a] person . . . may, if otherwise permitted by the laws or rules of court of a State, bring in an appropriate court of that State . . . an action based on a violation of this subsection” 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3).

9. Comcast is a Delaware limited liability company who at all times material to this Complaint has been in good standing and authorized to transact business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

10. Comcast has registered as a foreign corporation with the Pennsylvania Secretary of State pursuant to 15 Pa. Cons. Stat. § 411(a).

11. Comcast carries on a continuous and systematic part of its general business within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

12. Venue is appropriate under Pa. R.C.P. 1006 because Comcast is located in this county, and because the transactions or occurrences out of which this cause of action arose took place in this county.

PARTIES

13. Plaintiff Channel Aweau (“Ms. Aweau”) is, and at all times mentioned herein was, a citizen and resident of Bossier City, Louisiana.

14. Ms. Aweau is, and at all times mentioned herein was, a “person” as defined by 47

U.S.C. § 153(39).

15. Defendant Comcast Cable Communications, LLC is, and at all times mentioned herein was, a Delaware limited liability company with offices at One Comcast Center, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19103-2838.

16. Defendant is, and at all times mentioned herein was, a “person” as defined by 47 U.S.C. § 153 (39).

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

17. Ms. Aweau’s telephone number, (xxx) xxx-1111, is assigned to a cellular telephone service.

18. This number has been assigned to Ms. Aweau since December, 2016.

19. Since at least as early as October 24, 2020, Comcast has repeatedly called Ms. Aweau’s cellular telephone number and played a prerecorded message relating to a Comcast account that utilized an artificial or prerecorded voice.

20. Ms. Aweau knew that the call used an artificial or prerecorded voice due to the tone and cadence of the voice and because Ms. Aweau is familiar with traditional human discourse and was unable to interact with the caller.

21. With millions of customers, the scale of Comcast’s business requires the use of an automated system that allows the delivery of messages without the involvement of human agents.

22. These calls are made from the number 1-888-934-6489.¹

23. Ms. Aweau does not have a Comcast account.

24. Ms. Aweau has never been a Comcast customer.

25. Ms. Aweau did not consent to receive calls from Comcast and never consented to receive calls intended for other Comcast customers.

26. During numerous calls, Ms. Aweau followed the prompts to be connected to a live agent and informed the agent that Comcast was calling the wrong number and requested that the calls stop.

27. Despite her informing Comcast of the erroneous nature of its calls and requesting that the calls stop, Comcast continued to place prerecorded calls to Ms. Aweau.

28. On October 24, 2020 and June 24, 2021, Ms. Aweau spoke with a Comcast representative.

29. On both occasions, the Comcast representative advised that Ms. Aweau's number was being marked as "do-not-call", or words to that effect, and that she should not receive any further calls.

30. Despite these assurances, Ms. Aweau continues to receive calls from Comcast.

31. Ms. Aweau also called Comcast's customer service number and requested that the calls stop.

32. Nevertheless, Ms. Aweau continues to receive calls from Comcast.

33. The content of Comcast's messages demonstrates that Comcast's calls were not made of an emergency purpose.

34. Comcast is aware of the problems with its system resulting in these improper calls.

35. Comcast has been sued multiple times for behavior similar to that described in this complaint. See, e.g., Lacy v. Comcast Corporation, Case No. 19-05007 (W.D. Wash.); Elder v. Comcast Corporation, Case No. 15-3834 (E.D. Pa.).

36. Comcast is aware of the TCPA's prohibitions against the use of artificial or prerecorded voices to make calls to cellular phones without the prior express consent of the called party. Comcast therefore knowingly and willfully caused calls utilizing an artificial or prerecorded voice to be made to the cellular telephones of Ms. Aweau and other consumers without their prior express consent.

37. In addition, each call Comcast made to Ms. Aweau's cellular telephone after she informed Comcast that it was calling the wrong number was made knowingly and willfully.

38. Ms. Aweau has suffered concrete harm because of Defendant's unwanted and unsolicited telemarketing calls, including, but not limited to:

- Lost time tending to and responding to the unsolicited calls;
- Invasion of Privacy; and
- Nuisance.

39. Accordingly, each of Comcast's calls to Ms. Aweau using an artificial or prerecorded voice violated 47 U.S.C. § 227(b).

40. For violations of 47 U.S.C. § 227(b), Ms. Aweau is entitled to a minimum of $500 per call.

41. Ms. Aweau is entitled to $1500 per call if Comcast's actions are found to be knowing or willful.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

42. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of a class, pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. §§ 1701-1717.

43. Plaintiff seeks to represent the following Class:

All persons called by or on behalf of Comcast on their cellular telephone numbers with an artificial or prerecorded voice within four years of the filing of the complaint after informing Comcast or its vendor that the call was to a wrong number.

44. Plaintiff reserves the right to amend or modify the class definitions consistent with the record.

45. The Members of the Class for whose benefit this action is brought are so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable.

46. The exact number and identities of the persons who fit within the Class are ascertainable in that Comcast and third parties maintain written and/or electronically stored data showing:

- a. The time period(s) during which Comcast placed its calls;

- c. The telephone numbers for which Comcast had prior express consent;
- d. The telephone numbers for which Comcast was informed were incorrect;
- e. The purposes of such calls; and
- f. The names and addresses of Class members.

47. The Class is comprised of hundreds, if not thousands, of individuals.

48. There are common questions of law and fact affecting the rights of the Members of the Class, including, inter alia, the following:

- a. Whether Comcast (or someone acting on its behalf) used an artificial or prerecorded voice in placing its calls;
- b. Whether Comcast (or someone acting on its behalf) obtains prior express consent;
- c. Whether Comcast ignored consumers' indications that they were not the consumers Comcast intended to call;
- d. Whether Ms. Aweau and the Class were damaged thereby, and the extent of damages for such violations; and

e. Whether Comcast should be enjoined from engaging in such conduct in the future.

49. Ms. Aweau is a member of the Class in that Comcast placed a prerecorded call to her cellular telephone without her prior express consent and after Ms. Aweau notified Comcast that it was calling the wrong number.

50. Ms. Aweau's claims are typical of the claims of the Members of the Class in that they arise from Comcast's uniform conduct and are based on the same legal theories as these claims.

51. Ms. Aweau and all putative Members of the Class have also necessarily suffered concrete harm in addition to statutory damages, as all Members of the Class spent time tending to Defendant's unwanted calls and suffered a nuisance and an invasion of their privacy.

52. Ms. Aweau has no interests antagonistic to, or in conflict with, the Class.

53. Ms. Aweau will thoroughly and adequately protect the interests of the Class, having retained qualified and competent legal counsel to represent her and the Class.

54. Comcast has acted and refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class, thereby making injunctive and declaratory relief appropriate for the Class.

55. The prosecution of separate actions by individual class members would create a risk of inconsistent or varying adjudications.

56. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy since, inter alia, the damages suffered by each class member make individual actions uneconomical.

57. Common questions will predominate, and there will be no unusual manageability issues.

CAUSE OF ACTION
Violations of the TCPA, 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)

58. Plaintiff and the proposed Class incorporate the foregoing allegations as if fully set forth herein.

59. Comcast used an artificial or prerecorded voice to make non-emergency calls to the cellular telephones of Plaintiff and Class members, without their prior express consent.

60. Comcast has therefore violated 47 U.S.C. § 227(b).

61. As a result of Comcast's unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and the Class Members are entitled to an award of $500 in statutory damages for each call, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3)(B).

62. Plaintiff and the Class Members are entitled to an award of treble damages in an amount up to $1,500 for each call made knowingly and/or willfully, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3).

63. Plaintiff and Class Members are also entitled to and seek injunctive relief prohibiting future violations of the TCPA, including an injunction prohibiting Comcast from calling individuals with an artificial or prerecorded voice after being informed that Comcast or its vendor is calling the wrong number.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the Class, prays for the following relief:

A. An order certifying the Classes as defined above, appointing Plaintiff as the representative of the Class and appointing her counsel as Class Counsel;

B. An order declaring that Defendant's actions, as set out above, violate 47 U.S.C. §

227(b);

C. An award of injunctive and other equitable relief as necessary to protect the interests of the Class, including, inter alia, an order prohibiting Defendant from engaging in the wrongful and unlawful acts described herein;

D. An award of statutory damages;

E. An award of treble damages; and

F. Such other and further relief that the Court deems reasonable and just.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff requests a trial by jury of all claims that can be so tried.
